GENERAL AND REVENUE SECRETARIAT.

COUNCIL MATTER.

SUBJECT.

Proposed addition to Rule 23 of the Insurance Rules, so as to empower the President and the Secretary, Insurance Committee, to dispose of applications from a policy holder in favour of a nominee who has already been accepted by the Committee as such in respect of any one policy of the same applicant.

Circulated to Councillors.

By Order.

Secretary.

6th July 1908. ~~190~~

T. ANANDA ROW, Esq., B.A.,
First Councillor.

K. P. PUTTANNA CHETTY, Esq.,
Second Councillor.

Submitted to His Highness.

Under Rule 23 of the Mysore State Life Insurance Rules, the nomination by an insured official of a person or persons to receive the bonus due on a policy or policies held by him in case of his death, has to be approved by the Insurance Committee. The Insurance Committee consider that, when once the nomination of a person for one or more policies held by an Insured has been accepted by the Committee under Rule 23 A, it is unnecessary that subsequent applications for the nomination of the same person for other policies held by the same Insured should again be approved by the Committee. They therefore recommend that the following addition may be made to Rule 23 A of the Mysore State Life Insurance Rules so as to admit of the application for such nomination being disposed of by the President and the Secretary of the Committee without further reference to the Committee:-

"Such applications in favour of a nominee who "has already been accepted by the Committee as such "in respect of any one policy of the same applicant,

"may be disposed of by the President and the Secretary."

The Councillors approve of the proposed addition. It may be sanctioned.
